

SOCIAL EVENTS

Entertainment Study Club.

Mrs. William Lavender entertained the Monday Study club at her home, 2425 Eighteenth avenue, Saturday afternoon. There were 11 members present. Mrs. M. E. Sweeney and Mrs. C. W. Hayes were in charge of the program, the subject being "Japan." Some very interesting letters were read from Mrs. S. J. Collins, who is visiting her daughter in Manila and who has been visiting in Japan. Mrs. M. E. Sweeney of 1320 Twenty-second street, will be hostess at the next meeting, Nov. 15.

Hostess to Seven.

Mrs. James Eckhart was hostess at her home, 2535 Eighth-and-a-half avenue, Rock Island, yesterday afternoon to the regular meeting of the Seven club. The program on "India" was in charge of Mrs. Florence Houghton. Mrs. L. H. Hazard will entertain the club at its next meeting, Nov. 15, at her home, 1220 Eleventh street, Moline.

Vestment Guild Meets.

The regular meeting of the Vestment guild of the Trinity Episcopal church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Yellman, 831 Twenty-third street. Regular business was transacted and after the business session refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed. The guild will meet next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the parish house.

Miss Ross Weds Chicagoan.

Miss Rachel Frances Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ross, 1916 Eastern avenue, Davenport, became the bride of John S. Porterfield of Chicago, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Porterfield of Waterloo, Iowa, at a quiet ceremony, taking place at high noon today at the bride's home. Dr. Frank Cole of St. John's Methodist church officiated in the presence of only immediate relatives. Miss Louise Ross, who came from Bethany college, Topeka, Kan., to be present at the wedding, attended her sister as bridesmaid and Dr. Porterfield, father of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served and the bride couple left on a short wedding trip. The bride is now in Chicago, where Mr. Porterfield is in business with the Peabody Coal company.

The bride graduated from the Davenport schools and studied at the Cosmopolitan School of Music in Chicago. She has been private secretary to Irvin J. Green at the First National bank, Davenport, for some time.

Bacon-Molyneux Engagement.

Tri-city friends are interested in the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Evangeline Molyneux, daughter of Mrs. Mary F. Molyneux of 723 East Rushmore street, Davenport, to Guy B. Bacon, now of New York city, formerly of Davenport, which will be an early November ceremony at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. C. J. Donohue of the Church of St. Paul the Apostle will officiate. After a wedding trip to California the bride couple will on Jan. 1 be at home at Rockville, I. I., where Mr. Bacon is now business manager of the Long Island News. The bride-elect is a charming Davenport girl and has been active in young people's work in St. Paul's parish. Mr. Bacon was formerly on the editorial staff of the Times, being commercial editor. He was a member of battery B, saw service on the Mexican border and went overseas with the air service. He did active flying both in France and Germany and saw fighting in the Argonne. He was first lieutenant and an aerial observer.

A number of pre-nuptial parties have been arranged to compliment the bride-elect this week. Miss Mary Kinnavey entertained her club at a bridge last evening at her home, 1016 Kirkwood boulevard, Davenport, in honor of Miss Molyneux.

Tonight Mrs. George M. Sheets of 2327 Iowa street, will entertain at bridge for the bride-elect.

Wednesday evening the Misses Mary and Julia Lenahan will give an evening party for the bride-elect at their home on East High street. Mr. Bacon will arrive to Davenport Thursday from New York.

Deborah Class to Meet.

The Deborah class of the Broadway Presbyterian church will meet Thursday evening at the home of Miss Marion Moore, 525 Twenty-second street. It has been requested that all those expecting to attend notify Miss Moore calling R. I. 1242-L.

Thanksgiving Eve Dinner-Dance. Another of the series of dinners to be given during the winter months at the Rock Island club has been planned for Wednesday evening, Nov. 24. Thanksgiving eve. An elaborate dinner is being planned, to be followed by the program of dancing. Milledge's orchestra will furnish the music. The committee for this dance is chairmaned by George Schneider, and the committee members include Mrs. Lowry

Castell, Mrs. Gus Tegeler, Mrs. Edward Manhard, Mrs. A. Franklin Sala and Will Roth.

Dr. Dawson Speaks.

Dr. John Dawson of Kingston, Ontario, spoke at the meeting of the vestment guild of the Central Presbyterian church, held last evening at the home of Mrs. A. M. Klove, 1806 Fifteenth street. Miss Alice Atkinson led the devotionals and the remainder of the evening was spent in enjoyment of the remarks of Dr. Dawson on "The New East." Dr. Dawson is here in the interests of relief work in the near east. After the program, refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Nov. 15, with Mrs. J. T. Mordy, 925 Fourteenth street.

Entertainers for Guests.

Mrs. Frances B. Parker entertained at her home, 1714 Second avenue, the guild of the Central Presbyterian church, held last evening at the home of Mrs. A. M. Klove, 1806 Fifteenth street. Miss Alice Atkinson led the devotionals and the remainder of the evening was spent in enjoyment of the remarks of Dr. Dawson on "The New East." Dr. Dawson is here in the interests of relief work in the near east. After the program, refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Nov. 15, with Mrs. J. T. Mordy, 925 Fourteenth street.

Receives Birthday Surprise.

Claire Frey was pleasantly surprised at his home, 3123 Seventh avenue, last evening, the occasion being the anniversary of his birthday. There were three tables of 500 and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Kinney Leins and John Marshall. Mrs. Wallace Warren gave several piano numbers and Kinney Leins played a number of selections on the violin. At a late hour refreshments were served at the small tables. Mr. Frey was presented with many presents in remembrance of the occasion.

W. R. C. to Meet.

The Woman's Relief corps will hold an all-day meeting tomorrow in Memorial hall in the court house. A picnic dinner will be served at noon, and a luncheon will be served in the afternoon by a committee, consisting of Mrs. Bertha Bruhn, Mrs. Anna Coener, Mrs. Pauline Applequist, Mrs. Lena Heppenstall and Mrs. Edith Kinney.

Arrange Nov. 8 Card Party.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Turner ladies held yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Harms. Cards were played during the hours, Mrs. Margaret Winkler taking first prize. Mrs. Henry Gaethle second, Mrs. Knappe of Davenport third, and Mrs. Mehl fourth.

The ladies are planning for a card party to be held Nov. 8 at the hotel, when lunch and 500 will be played. The general public is invited to attend. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of yesterday's games.

Hold Regular Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Girls' Friendly society of the Trinity Episcopal church was held last evening at the rectory. It was a study meeting and Rev. W. L. Essex was in charge of the study on church history. The girls will meet next week for a work meeting.

Hatkvok Club Party.

Miss Minnie Scheinman of 1107 Eighth avenue was hostess to the members of the Hatkvok club at a Halloween party Saturday night. Decorations were in the Halloween colors and the guests came dressed in costumes suited to the season. Prizes in the games went to the Misses Minnie and Gusle Goldberg. Dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Service Circle to Meet.

The Service circle of King's Daughters will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening at the home of Miss Grace Murphy, 561 Thirtieth street. Members are requested to bring their dues for the new year and money for fines for last year. A large attendance is expected.

Announce Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf M. Nelson of 2432 Tremont avenue, Davenport, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Pearl, to N. G. B. Schulmeister of Davenport. The ceremony will take place at a quiet family affair at the bride's home Thursday, Nov. 25. Rev. J. A. Miller, pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, to officiate. Miss Nelson has chosen orchid and gold for her colors. There will be a wedding dinner after the ceremony, and on the return from the wedding trip the new home will be in this city.

Miss Nelson is a graduate of the Davenport high school, has been active among the young people of St. Paul's church and is soprano soloist in the choir. She is employed in the drafting room at the arsenal.

Mr. Schulmeister is a master plumber, being head of the Central Plumbing & Heating Co.

Announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage was made at a party of Saturday given by Mrs. Nelson when some thirty girl friends were guests. Little 4-year-old Charles Cook acted as "Cupid's messenger," and dressed in the bridal colors, distributing missives bearing pictures of the bride couple and the date of the ceremony. The evening was enjoyed with games and music and prizes went to Misses Frieda Glock, Anna Larsen, Alice Brodne and Edna Feen.

The Misses Minnie Nichols, Adelaide Wilkinson, Lorraine Wood and Miss Nora Daley will entertain for Miss Nelson Saturday evening at the home of Miss Nichols.

Lazio-Maddalena.

Tri-city friends of Miss Antoinette Anita Maddalena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincenzo Maddalena of 1702 Third avenue, will be interested in her marriage to Fred Lazio of Cedar Rapids, son of Salvatore Lazio of Italy, which was an event of yesterday morning at Cedar Rapids.

The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock in the Hotel Montrose before a company of some fifty wedding guests, including a number from Rock Island. Decorations were in greenery and an orchestra played the wedding march and during the dinner, which was served in the bird room following the ceremony, Rev. Dr. Edward R. Burkholder performed the service. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amato, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, of this city, served the couple as best man and matron of honor.

The bride was dressed in a handsome gown of white tulle and her bouquet was of white roses and lilies. Mrs. Amato wore white tulle and her flowers were an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Lazio left during the day for a wedding trip. After their honeymoon, which will be spent in the east, the couple will be at home in Cedar Rapids. The at-home date is Nov. 14. The bridegroom is proprietor of a fruit store.

Included in the guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. Amato and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amato of this city, also newly married couples. Mr. and Mrs. D. Amato were married in June and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amato in September. Both brides are sisters of Mrs. Lazio. Other guests from Rock Island were Mr. and Mrs. Vincenzo Maddalena, Mrs. Josephine Amato, Miss Giroloma Amato, Mrs. Rose Posateris and Joe and Anna Posateris and J. Sgarlati, Mr. and Mrs. John Lazio of Moline, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lazio of Anamosa, John Lazio and Joe and John Corso of Burlington, Tom Lazio of Sterling and John Lazio of Moundville.

Society Has Visitor.

Members of the Kate Hill Missionary society of the First United Presbyterian church together with a number of visitors, enjoyed an informal evening together at the church last evening. A special guest of the evening was Miss Kate A. Hill, after whom the society is named. Miss Hill gave an interesting talk following the exhibition meeting of the society, which was a part of the evening's program. She gave some very valuable suggestions for carrying on missionary work through societies.

Miss Gladys Wilson favored with a piano number and Miss Notavenna Steck played two much enjoyed selections. Refreshments were served and a social hour followed.

Miss Hill returns today to Grinnell, Iowa, where she is taking special work during her furlough from India and acting as a field secretary. There are seven societies named after her, located in cities from New York to the west, but the local organization was the original.

Miss Alinsworth to Entertain.

Miss Mary Alinsworth will be hostess at her home, "Wawona," in Moline, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at a social meeting of the Illinois-Iowa branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae. There will be a short business session, and the remainder of the afternoon will be turned over to sociability. The members are all asked to come dressed in the dress worn by them when in college, or those worn by their mothers in their college days. Arrangements are being made by a committee in charge for a number of interesting games and "stunts," and a very entertaining afternoon is promised.

The main work of the association is the furnishing of scholarships to girls, who would otherwise be unable to attend college. A continuous fund is kept for this purpose and it is being added to every year. Another advantage of the association is that the organization makes it possible, because of the large number in the national organization—there are 122 branches throughout the country, representing 80 colleges—to stand behind any important legislation.

Entertainers for Mr. Talbot.

Members of the auditing and transfer departments of the Royal Neighbor offices entertained last evening at a 6 o'clock dinner at the Y. W. C. A. in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Talbot and daughter, Miss Edelyn. Mr. Talbot has served as chief auditor for the last year, and recently resigned to accept a position elsewhere. Covers were laid for 16, and a dainty four-course dinner was served. The parlors were decorated to conform with the season, and individual favors were baskets of candy.

At the conclusion of the dinner, talks were given by the Misses Mary Applequist, Irene Bach and Mrs. Ethel Rinck. Mr. Talbot, in acknowledging the courtesy, expressed his appreciation of the cooperation given him in the department. Selections were given by Miss Ruth Ruge at the piano. At the close of the evening, little Miss Talbot was presented with a huge basket of chrysanthemums.

Hostess at Birthday Party.

Little Miss Jeanne Bodewig, at her home, 1616 Twentieth avenue, was the delightful hostess to 12 of her little friends Saturday afternoon at a pretty party, the occasion being her seventh birthday anniversary. The house was very spooky in its decorations, carrying out the Halloween idea, and the same suggestion was carried out in the birthday luncheon, which was served. Besides the large yellow birthday cake, which contained seven lighted yellow candles, there were candied apples, popcorn balls and ice cream. Little Miss Jeanne was left with many remembrances of the occasion.

McQuarrie-Butler.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Butler and Thomas McQuarrie, both of Rock Island, was a quiet ceremony taking place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the study in the annex of the First Baptist church. Rev. J. Clark Oranger officiated, using the ring service. There were no attendants. Mr. McQuarrie is a golf instructor on Rock Island Arsenal. The new home will be made in Rock Island.

Entertainers Reading Circle.

Mrs. Emil Warneke entertained the Optimus Reading circle at her home in the Sala apartments last evening. The members met at 7 o'clock for the regular supper meeting, after which the evening was spent informally, with the regular program. "The Christianization of the Jew" was the subject studied at last evening's meeting, each member present taking an active part in the discussion. Mrs. H. Schill will be hostess at the meeting Nov. 15, at her home, 335 Nineteenth street.

Give Halloween Party.

Herbert and John Day were hosts at their home, 4439 Ninth avenue, Saturday evening at an elaborately planned Halloween party. The guests were 26 men and women, friends of the hosts. As the guests arrived, they were conducted by Miss Bernice Day and Miss Jessie Duncan, through dark passages, containing sudden and unexpected Halloween devices, a ladder to be descended, ghosts with wet clammy hands, skeletons, etc., to the attic where the floor was waxed for dancing. Victrola music and John Day's jazz band played for the dancing, and punch was furnished during the evening. The whole house was elaborately decorated with corn stalks, pumpkins, and jumpkin jack o'lanterns, paper cats, witches, ghosts, etc. The lights were covered with black and orange fringed paper, and in the dining room, the table was covered with black and orange paper. Besides the dancing, games were played, prizes going to Miss Lorraine Johnson and Lyle Loggren, and musical numbers were enjoyed by the Eberhard and Co. quartet. At 12:30 o'clock, a buffet luncheon was served in the dining room. Each guest was presented with a Halloween favor, suggestive of the season.

Recital Arouses Interest.

Many tri-city people will be interested in the second of the series of artists' recitals to be given at Augustana college Friday evening, Nov. 19, under the auspices of the college conservatory. Louis Kreidler, baritone, and Arvid Samuelson, pianist, with LeRoy Carlson, accompanist. Both Mr. Kreidler and Mr. Samuelson have appeared in recitals before at the college and on the concert platform and the announcement of the joint recital will be received enthusiastically. Mr. Kreidler has just recently become connected with the school. He has sung here on numerous occasions while he was located in his Chicago studio.

Mr. and Mrs. Kone Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kone entertained a company of 30 of their friends at their home, 321 Sixteenth street, Sunday. The house was decorated in Halloween suggestions. During the hours the guests were favored with selections by Evans and Tony's Capital Jazz band. A delicious four-course dinner was served at 6 o'clock.

Music Students Meet.

The regular meeting of the Music Students was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Gertrude Branigan, 414 East Pleasant street, Davenport. The regular study program was given, piano numbers being given by Miss Branigan, and vocal numbers by Mrs. William Waterman. Mrs. Ben Cable will be hostess at the next meeting, Nov. 15, at her home, 415 Twenty-ninth street, Rock Island. The meeting will be a study meeting.

Endowment Fund Society to Meet.

The November meeting of the Augustana Endowment Fund society will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Foss, 3808 Eighth avenue. Mrs. Jeanette Kempe will give a paper on "Women in Industry."

The Busy Bee sewing circle of the Rebekah's will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. T.

Bauer, 1507 Thirty-ninth street. Friends are invited to attend. Margaret Giles circle, Daughters, will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Miss Brede, 3051 Tenth avenue. Mrs. W. H. Whistler has left Hot Springs, Ark., to spend winter.
